Over 100,000 children orphaned during last 33 years in HIOJK

In Indian Illegally Occupied Jammu and Kashmir, over one hundred thousand children have been orphaned during the last 33 years. As Father's Day is being celebrated worldwide, today (Sunday), thousands of fathers in occupied territory have lost their sons at the hands of brutal Indian troops. Similarly, hundreds of youth have lost and damaged their eyesight due to the firing of lethal pellets by Indian troops and paramilitary forces on peaceful protesters since 2010. Meanwhile, in HIOJK, women are the worst victims of Indian forces' barbarities as India is using rape as a weapon of war to suppress the Kashmiris' struggle for right to self-determination. An analytical report released by Kashmir Media Service on the occasion of International Day for the Elimination of Sexual Violence in Conflict, on Sunday, revealed that Indian forces' personnel had sexually assaulted over 11,255 women during the last three decades in the occupied territory.

Indian police arrest three youth in Handwara

Indian police on Sunday arrested three Kashmiri youth in Kupwara district. The youth were arrested in Kralgund, Handwara area of the district. The police have claimed that the arrested youth, identified as Nazim Ahmad Butt, Sirajuddin Khan and Adil Gull, were over ground workers of a mujahid organization to justify their arrest.

AJK President orders Defence Committee to redouble efforts for early release of Yasin

President Azad Jammu and Kashmir Barrister Sultan Mehmood Chaudhry has asked the recently formed Defense Committee to redouble its efforts to secure an early release of Yasin Malik who was convicted after a fabricated trial by an Indian court. Addressing the members of the Defense Committee in London, he said the unjust sentence awarded to Yasin Malik is in blatant violation of norms of justice. On this occasion, the Defense Committee assured the President that the committee has started its work by obtaining all the necessary documents in this regard. Later, the President addressed a public meeting in Slavo, wherein he spoke at length about his visit to the UK, Ireland, and Belgium.

APHC voices concern over surge in Indian state terrorism in IIOJK

All Parties Hurriyat Conference has urged international community to play a role in the resolution of Kashmir dispute. In a statement in Srinagar, APHC spokesman expressed serious concern over surge in state terrorism unleashed by Narendra Modi-led fascist Indian government across the territory. He said killing of several youth in fake encounters in different areas of the territory is the worst display of brutal Indian imperialism. Indian troops along with paramilitary force and police personnel continued their violent cordon and search operations at various areas in the territory and harassed the residents.

Thousands of students at risk as 300 IIOJK schools face ban

Thousands of students are at risk on closing of schools affiliated with a registered, Falah-e-Aam Trust. Huzaif Ahmad, a 14-year-old class 9th student in Budgam district, who dreams to become an engineer, is now staring at an uncertain future. He is among some 600 students and teachers at a secondary school in Budgam who are worried whether their school will be closed because of its past affiliation with a Falah-e-Aam Trust that has come under a new crackdown by the Hindutva RSS-BJP regime in IIOJK. Like many other schools, the management said that the school was dissociated from the Falah-e-Aam Trust, re-registered and taken over by local community management in 2017. But reports said that the secondary school was among 20 schools in the Budgam district that might face closure.

Farooq Abdullah says he is not in fray for President's post

The National Conference President, Farooq Abdullah on Saturday announced that he was not in the fray for the President's post. Farooq Abdullah in a statement issued in Srinagar thanked West Bengal Chief Minister and Trinamool Congress supremo Mamata Banerjee for proposing his name as a joint opposition candidate, but noted that his services are needed more in Jammu and Kashmir at this juncture.
