AJK President thanks British MPs for extending unflinching support to Kashmiris' struggle

Azad Jammu and Kashmir President Barrister Sultan Mehmood Chaudhry held a series of important meetings with British Parliamentarians Jeremy Corbyn and James Daly and thanked them for their all-out support to Kashmiris' just struggle for right to self-determination. On the occasion the AJK President praised the British parliamentarians' role in raising their voice against Indian barbarism and brutalities in the Indian occupied Kashmir. "We owe a debt of gratitude to Parliamentarians for their overwhelming support for the Kashmir cause," the AJK president said during his meeting with Labour Party leader and member British Parliament Jeremy Corbyn in London on Sunday, according to AJK's President office.

Pakistan urges world to hold India accountable for committing crimes in IIOJ&K

Pakistan has urged the international community to take cognizance of the sexual crimes against the people of Indian Illegally Occupied Jammu and Kashmir and hold the perpetrators of these condemnable acts accountable through various mechanisms including sanctions against offenders of these grave crimes. In a message on the International Day for the Elimination of Sexual Violence in Conflict on Sunday, Foreign Office Spokesperson Asim Iftikhar said rape is employed as a tool of suppression and means of collective punishment in IIOJK. The women, girls and children of IIOJK have witnessed the most egregious forms of sexual violence of recent times. He said the Indian state machinery has perpetrated sexual violence with full impunity to silence, subjugate and stifle the people of IIOJK and stop them from demanding their legitimate right to self-determination, pledged in the relevant UN Security Council resolutions.

WKAF will use digital advertising trucks to demand release of Yasin Malik, others

The World Kashmir Awareness Forum has decided to use digital advertising trucks in Washington DC to demand release of Kashmiri leaders Muhammad Yasin Malik, Khurram Pervez and others. The forum further decided that the electronic screens on the trucks will carry messages such as: Free Yasin Malik, Free Khurram Parvez and Free all political prisoners in Kashmir. Forum says that our aim is to target the policy makers in Washington as well as the general public to let them know that crimes against humanity are being committed in India and the Biden Administration needs to intervene.
