1. In Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir, Indian troops in their fresh act of state terrorism martyred one more Kashmiri youth in Baramulla district, today, raising the toll to two in the past 24 hours.
2. The troops martyred the youth during a cordon and search operation in Wanigam Bala area of the district. Another youth was martyred by the troops in the same area, last night.
3. Sadly, the Indian media flashed the news about the elimination of an Indian army dog, Axel, during the operation under banner headlines, but uttered no words of sympathy for the martyred Kashmiri youth. The media covered the wreath-laying ceremony of the slain dog by the Indian army at the headquarters of 10 Sector Rashtriya Rifles with every minute detail with how top Indian army leadership including Maj. Gen. SS Slaria, General Officer Commanding Kilo and representatives of the Indian Police attending the event without any shame.
4. The locals condemned both the Indian media as well as the army for glamorizing the killing of the dog, but maintaining a criminal silence on the massacre of Kashmiri youth in fake encounters. They said that the occupation troops had martyred thousands of Kashmiris in IIOJK in the past three decades without any reason, but the morally-bankrupt Godi media did not pay heed to these killings as if the life of an animal is more important than the life of Kashmiri people in the eye of the Indian media.
5. Senior APHC-AJK leader Muhammad Farooq Rehmani in a statement in Islamabad urged the United Nations Human Rights Council and other concerned groups to urgently intervene in the face of deteriorating health condition of Hurriyat leader Muhammad Yasin Malik in Tihar jail. Malik is on a hunger strike till indefinite period since July 22. Farooq Rehmani supported Yasin Malik's demand for fair trial.
6. Meanwhile, the culture of killing of innocent people by Indian troops in fake encounters in IIOJK has started spreading its ugly tentacles deep inside India under Modi-led fascist government. In one such latest development, thirteen Indian police personnel, including a superintendent of police, have been booked for abducting a fellow countryman Bhalchandra and subsequently killing him in a fake encounter in Chitrakoot area of Uttar Pradesh state in March 2021.
7. On the other hand, Chief Justice of India N V Ramana addressing an event in New Delhi admitted that only a small percentage of the population could approach courts while the majority suffers in silence in India.
