IIOJK: Indian troops martyr two youth in Kulgam

Indian troops in their fresh act of state terrorism martyred two youth in Kulgam district, today (Wednesday). According to Kashmir Media Service, the youth were martyred by the troops during a cordon and search in Nawapora area of the district. All Parties Hurriyat Conference has said that the Modi-led Indian government is killing innocent Kashmiri youth as state policy in fake encounters in Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir. APHC spokesman in a statement issued in Srinagar said the troops pick the youth from their homes, take them to areas in the Kashmir valley and along the Line of Control and kill them after dubbing them as militants. The authorities continued to enforce strict restrictions in the name of security of the Hindu pilgrimage Amarnath Yatra in the territory. Meanwhile, Peoples Democratic Party chief Mehbooba Mufti and National Conference Vice President Omar Abdullah strongly criticized the Modi government for arresting journalist Mohammad Zubair on fabricated charges

India staging fake encounters in IIOJK to malign Kashmiris' struggle: APHC

The All Parties Hurriyat Conference has said that Indian troops are killing innocent Kashmiri youth in Indian Illegally Occupied Jammu and Kashmir in fake encounters to malign the ongoing freedom movement of Kashmiris. The APHC spokesman, in a statement issued in Srinagar said that Pathribal fake encounter of 2000, Machil fake encounter of 2010, Shopian fake encounter of 2020 and Lawaypora fake encounter of 2020 are some glaring examples of the nefarious tactics being used by India to subdue the freedom sentiment of the Kashmiri people. The spokesman said that Indian troops are killing the Kashmiri youth on daily basis to change the demographic composition of the territory. However, he said that India must remember that it would not succeed to suppress the Kashmiris' will through such cheap tactics.

Protests against anti-people policies of Indian authorities in IIOJK

People from different walks of life held protest demonstrations against anti-people policies of the local face of Modi-led Indian regime in Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir. The ongoing protest of All Jammu Based Reserved Category Employees in Jammu entered 30th day, today. The protest at Ambedkar Chowk in Jammu city is being spearheaded by All Jammu Based Reserved Category Employees Association, Kashmir.

Indian police arrest one youth in Bandipora

Indian police arrested a youth in north Kashmir's Bandipora district. The police arrested the youth, Mehboob ul Inam, at a checkpoint in Papchan area of the district. The police dubbed the youth as member of a mujahid organization to justify his illegal detention.

Indian forces, agencies harassing youth in IIOJK

Indian troops, police and dreaded agencies like National Investigating Agency (NIA) and State Investigation Agency are harassing youth and Hurriyat activists in the territory. The personnel of Indian forces and agencies during house raids are arresting youth and summoning others to the police stations. "The police force us to stay long time and harass us in police stations, without any reason which is affecting our work," several youth told the media. It seems that India, its proxy regime and agencies are trying to break Kashmiris' commitment to the Kashmir cause by using such cheap tactics, they said, adding that such tactics could not break the Kashmiri's resolve for freedom.

Modi regime's brutal action of forcible closure of shops draws ire in IIOJK

Modi-led fascist Indian regime's brutal action of forcibly shutting down shops of Kashmiri people located on the Amarnath Yatra route has annoyed businessmen, politicians and civil society members of Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir. Reacting to the move, they termed it a deliberate attempt by the Modi regime to deprive the Kashmiri people of any economic activity during the 43-day Yatra, which commenced from twin base camps in IIOJK, today, and will conclude on 11 August. Shopkeepers continued their protest against the decision of closing down their shops in Pantha Chowk area of Srinagar till the end of the Hindu pilgrimage. The protesting shopkeepers told the media that they had been directed to close their shops for 40 days. They said the decision would starve their families as they were already economically weak.

Authorities impose restrictions along Yatra routes in IIOJK

The Indian authorities have imposed strict restrictions and no one is allowed to move out along Amernath Yatra routes in the territory. Witnesses told the media that the authorities have made heavy deployment of Indian troops, paramilitary and police personnel in Yatra routes—Lakhanpore-Jammu-Srinagar highway, Pampore to Sonamagrg and Khanabal to Chandewadi while Yatra vehicles ply on roads, common Kashmiris are harassed. Drone surveillance by Indian Army has also been pressed into service along the routes while Kashmir, dotted with bunkers, has been changed into a military garrison.

Troops martyr 2 Kashmiri youth in fake encounter in Kupwara

In Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir, Indian troops in their fresh act of state terrorism martyred two Kashmiri youth in North Kashmir's Kupwara district, yesterday. Locals told the media that the troops picked up the youth from their homes and later killed them in a staged encounter.

Highlighting Kashmir dispute, Pakistan urges UNSC to implement its resolutions

Pakistan Tuesday urged the UN Security Council to “seriously consider” ways to implement its resolutions, especially on long-standing disputes like Jammu and Kashmir, while stressing that the 15-member body must become more transparent, accountable, inclusive and democratic to respond to the growing challenges. “Nothing undermines the credibility of the Council more than ‘selective’ implementation, and non implementation, of its resolutions,”

Ambassador Aamir Khan, the acting permanent representative of Pakistan to the UN, said in a debate on the Security Council's working methods. “Failure to enforce its own resolutions undermines the credibility of the Security Council and erodes the commitment of States and peoples to the principles of the UN Charter and the pacific settlement of disputes,” he told the Council.

India blocks Radio Pakistan's twitter account

Pakistan twitter account has been blocked in India, denying access to information and restricting democratic freedom of expression. The social media handle of Pakistan's state broadcaster has been withheld mainly for highlighting grave human rights violations in the Indian Illegally Occupied Jammu and Kashmir. Earlier, Foreign Office Spokesperson Asim Iftikhar expressed serious concern over India's blocking of official accounts of Pakistan embassies in the United Nations, Turkey, Iran, Egypt and others. He said social media platforms must abide by applicable international norms.

CPJ urges India to release journalist Mohammad Zubair

The Committee to Protect Journalists has called on Indian authorities to immediately and unconditionally release journalist Mohammad Zubair and cease harassing him. In a statement, CPJ's Asia programme coordinator in Washington, Steven Butler said the arrest of the journalist marks another low for press freedom in India, where the government has created a hostile and unsafe environment for members of the press reporting on sectarian issues.

‘#IStandWithZubair’ becomes top trend on Twitter

The hashtag ‘#IStandWithZubair’ has become top trend on Twitter, with the users of the microblogging website demanding the immediate release of the Indian journalist and Alt News Co-founder, Mohammad Zubair. According to Kashmir Media Service, the Twitter users showered heaps of praises on Mohammad Zubair in their posts. They also condemned his arrest. One of the users wrote, “Zubair is the finest journalist of our times. Hanging my head in shame, and rage”.

APHC resents killings, arrests during unrelenting CASOs in IIOJK

All Parties Hurriyat Conference says people are living without basic human rights amid unrelenting cordon and search operations conducted by Indian army in the held valley. In their separate statements in Srinagar, APHC leaders said killings, fake encounters, arrests and house raids have become order of the day especially after revocation of Kashmir’s special status by India on August 5, 2019. High Court of occupied Jammu and Kashmir has quashed illegal detention of two Kashmiri youth held under black law, Public Safety Act and directed authorities to release them immediately. The court in its order maintained that detaining authorities have failed to supply charges to detainees, rendering detention order illegal and unsustainable.

IIOJK HC quashes black law PSA of two detainees

The High Court in Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir has quashed detention orders of two detainees held under black law, Public Safety Act last year. The court while hearing the two separate petitions filed by Irshad Ahmad Reshi and Meraj-ud-Din Dar challenging their detention orders passed against them by District Magistrates Pulwama and Srinagar have quashed both detention orders and directed the jail authorities to release the detainees forthwith. Justice Sanjay Dhar in his order observed that the detainees cannot be expected to make an effective and purposeful representation which is his constitutional and statutory right guaranteed, unless and until the material, on which detention is based, is supplied to the detainee. -KMS

G 20 countries asked to refrain from undermining UN credibility by holding meeting in IIOJK

All Parties Hurriyat Conference (APHC) has warned the G 20 countries against undermining the credibility of the United Nations by holding their meeting in the UN-designated disputed territory of Jammu and Kashmir. The APHC leaders and organizations in their statements issued in Srinagar vehemently rejected the Indian government's proposal of holding G20 meeting in occupied Jammu and Kashmir saying the move will amount to legitimize the India's illegal occupation of internationally disputed Jammu and Kashmir. They said these counties should take into account the systematic human rights violation perpetrated by more than one million Indian occupation troops with impunity in the territory.

Munich echoes with 'Modi not welcome' as he arrives for G-7 summit

As Indian Prime Minister Narendra Modi arrived in Munich to attend the G-7 summit, his countrymen held a protest demonstration and chanted 'Modi not Welcome' and 'Go Back Modi' slogans to denounce his government's policies of Hindu supremacy. The Indian expatriates living in Germany gathered to protest against their prime minister for pursuing the Hindutva ideology by marginalizing the non-Hindu communities in India. "Indians in Munich make a bold statement. Sounds of "Modi not welcome in Munich" echo in the historic grounds of Munich today. Proud moment for standing up to Hindutva's communal tones," the International Council of Indian Muslims said on its Twitter handle. <https://twitter.com/i/status/1540795942919471105>

'Decide within 1 week': Indian SC to IIOJK High Court on plea of man seeking to perform last rites of son

The Supreme Court of India has asked the high court in Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir (IIOJK) to take a decision, within one week, on a father's plea to perform last rites of his son who was killed in "Hyderpora encounter" in Srinagar in November last year. Senior advocate Anand Grover, representing Mohammed Latif Magry, submitted before a vacation bench of Justices Surya Kant and J.B. Pardiwala that his client will perform the last rites as per religious beliefs and emphasised that he has the right to perform the last rites. Grover clarified that he was not pressing on the exhumation of the body of the client's son. He said his client wants relief regarding performing last rites and compensation. A single judge bench of the high court passed a direction regarding Rs 5 lakh but a division bench stayed it.

Twitter withholds prominent journalist Rana Ayyub's account in India

Twitter on Sunday withheld the journalist Rana Ayyub's account in India in accordance with the Information Technology Act of 2000. Rana Ayyub took to her Twitter account to post the notice and said, "Hello Twitter, what exactly is this?" The notice from Twitter that Rana Ayyub shared read, "In order to comply with Twitter's obligations under India's local laws, we have withheld the following account in India under the country's Information Technology Act, 2000: the content remains available elsewhere."

‘Press freedom chilled in Kashmir as reporting is criminalized, says NBC News

Journalists in Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir are facing an atmosphere of intimidation that is driving them out of the profession and keeping the rest from freely reporting what’s happening in the territory to the world, so writes NBC News, the news division of the American broadcast television network NBC in its latest report. The NBC News report said that a harsh crackdown began after 2019, when India’s Hindu nationalist government revoked the limited autonomy that Kashmir had enjoyed for 70 years. It quotes a photojournalist, Muneeb-ul-Islam, as having said, “You cannot think of doing journalism here, it appears all criminalized now”. Islam,

31 now runs a tailor shop in a village about 40 miles south of Kashmir's capital, Srinagar. When they changed Kashmir's status, Indian officials argued it could bring an end to the uprising. But the highly militarized region of 12.5 million people has continued to experience waves of violence, the report added. The NBC referred to Human Rights Watch and said, since 2019 at least 35 journalists in Kashmir have faced "police interrogation, raids, threats, physical assault or criminal cases" in relation to their work.-KMS

Torture is crime against humanity; IIOJK situation remains grim: President

President Dr Arif Alvi Sunday said that torture was a crime against humanity and the situation was particularly grim in Indian Illegally Occupied Jammu & Kashmir (IIOJK), where the people were being subjected to brutal torture by the Indian security forces. Although torture was prohibited under both international and national laws, it still happened all around the world. "I reiterate that torture remains unacceptable and unjustified at all times," the president said in a message on the occasion of International Day in Support of Victims of Torture. "While recognizing the pain of the victims of torture, as well as their families, I urge the international community and concerned organizations to make all possible efforts to prevent torture, rehabilitate victims and provide redress to them," the president emphasized.

Pakistan rejects any attempt by India to contemplate some G20-related event in IIOJK

Pakistan says it completely rejects any attempt by India to contemplate some G20-related event or meeting in the Indian Illegally Occupied Jammu and Kashmir. In a statement on Saturday, Foreign Office spokesperson Asim Iftikhar Ahmed said Jammu and Kashmir is an internationally recognized "disputed" territory between Pakistan and India and the dispute remains on the agenda of the UN Security Council for over seven decades. He said holding of any G20 related event in the territory in utter disregard of the disputed status of the territory, is a travesty that the international community cannot accept under any circumstances.

Indian troops targeting youth in IIOJK under well-hatched conspiracy: APHC

The All Parties Hurriyat Conference has said India is deliberately targeting the youth in Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir under a well-hatched conspiracy to force the Kashmiris to give up their freedom struggle but will never succeed in its nefarious designs. According to Kashmir Media Service, the APHC in a statement issued in Srinagar said the Indian troops enjoying unbridled powers under draconian laws are killing and arresting the Kashmiri youth at will without any fear of punishment. It said during the last two weeks, the troops have martyred over a dozen youth in fake encounters and arrested many others during house raids and so-called search operations

Indian troops intensify CASOs, reign of terror in IIOJK

Indian troops and dreaded agencies have intensified the reign of terror by stepping up their cordon and search operations and house raids to suppress the Kashmiris' ongoing freedom movement. The residents of many areas of Srinagar told media that Indian forces' personnel have made their life a living hell. On the other hand, in order to hoodwink international community about ground situation and give credence to its false claims of normalcy in IIOJK, A report by Forum for Human Rights, a group of concerned citizens of India, says that revocation of Article 370 has contributed to structural and social changes that have perhaps been most keenly felt by children in IIOJK. In its Special Report 2022, the Forum comprising judges, activists and lawyers says Kashmiri teenagers continue to be harassed, picked up for questioning and are illegally detained, in complete violation of the Juvenile Justice Act. The report said children as young as 18 months old have become victims of the weapons used by Indian forces' personnel to disperse the protesters in IIOJK.

Pakistan Strongly Condemns Extra-Judicial Killing Of Eleven More Kashmiris

Pakistan Friday strongly condemned extra-judicial killing of eleven more Kashmiris in fresh acts of state-sponsored terrorism by Indian occupation forces in Pulwama and Baramulla Districts of Indian Illegally Occupied Jammu and Kashmir (IIOJK). Addressing a weekly press briefing here, the Foreign Office spokesperson said since India's illegal and unilateral actions of 5 August 2019, more than 636 Kashmiris had embraced martyrdom in fake 'encounters' and so-called 'cordon-and-search operations.

Pakistan calls for protection of oppressed people of IIOJK

At the United Nations, Pakistan has called for protection of the oppressed people of Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir as well as Muslims in India and Palestine. The demand was made by Pakistan's Permanent Representative to the United Nations, Munir Akram, while speaking at a thematic debate on the doctrine of Responsibility to Protect, in the UN General Assembly. He said the most egregious aspect of the concept of Responsibility to Protect is its "selectivity and double standards", as its sponsors have ignored the need for "collective action" to protect the sufferings of people of occupied Palestine and Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir.

Peace in IIOJK cannot be achieved through force: Farooq Abdullah

National Conference President, Farooq Abdullah, has urged the Narendra Modi-led fascist Indian government to shun its stubborn attitude and review its Kashmir policy, as peace cannot be achieved through force. Addressing party leaders and activists in Badgam district, he said the people of Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir, particularly the Kashmiri Valley, are paying a heavy price for India's negative Kashmir policy. Farooq Abdullah said the post 2019 policy landscape of Kashmir has no space for dialogue, as it only relies on obliterating the legacy and icons of the region's constitutional and historical uniqueness.

India inducts new weapons, ICVs into its army in Ladakh

IIOJK, as part of furthering its hegemonic designs in the region, Indian Army has inducted new weapons and Infantry Combat Vehicles into its machinery in Ladakh region. Indian Army's Northern Commander Lt General Upendra Dwivedi visited forward areas at Lukung in Eastern Ladakh and reviewed induction of new weapons and equipments to the army engaged in conflict with Chinese troops for last about two years now. Lt General Dwivedi said, "One can easily drive the vehicle. The driver can see 1800 meters away from it. The weapon mounted on it can be controlled from inside." It is to mention here that the ICV has been developed jointly by India's Defense Research and Development Organisation (DRDO) and Tata Group.

At UN, delegates of Pakistan, India spar over Kashmir dispute

Representatives of India and Pakistan Tuesday clashed at the United Nations after Pakistani Ambassador Munir Akram called for humanitarian assistance for the people of the Illegally Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir (IIOJK), saying they are “oppressed” daily by 900,000 Indian troops. Ambassador Akram made that statement in the Humanitarian Affairs Segment of the UN Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), which is taking place in New York. An Indian representative reacted to the Pakistani envoy’s remarks, claiming that Jammu and Kashmir was an integral part of India, and accused Pakistan of supporting terrorism. Exercising her right of reply, Pakistan’s representative Saima Saleem said Jammu and Kashmir is not and has never been part of India’s territory, as multiple United Nations resolutions define it as a disputed territory.

IIOJK: APHC strongly rejects normalcy claim of Modi-led fascist regime in held territory

All Parties Hurriyat Conference leadership has strongly rejected the normalcy claim propagated by the Modi-led fascist Indian regime in Illegally Occupied Jammu and Kashmir. According to Kashmir Media Service, the APHC leadership in a statement in Srinagar, said that killing of innocent Kashmiris on daily basis flies directly in the face of Indian government’s ‘all is well’ mantra. APHC leadership said in a bid to hoodwink the international community India always harps on painting an ‘all is ok’ picture in the occupied territory. Meanwhile, Kashmiri students are bearing the brunt of multiple lockdowns, coupled with unending series of cordon and search operations, raids and crackdowns stepped up by Indian troops in Jammu and Kashmir particularly after August 2019's illegal actions. The IIOJK State Council of Educational Research and Training while revealing the 2021 survey said that the average performance of the Kashmiri students has immensely dropped across all levels.

Lockdowns, CASOs and raids take toll on average performance of Kashmiri students

Multiple lockdowns, coupled with unending series of cordon and search operations, raids and crackdowns by Indian troops are taking a heavy toll on the average performance of the students in Indian illegally occupied Jammu and Kashmir. The IIOJK State Council of Educational Research and Training (SCERT) while revealing a fresh assessment conducted by India's National Achievement Survey (NAS) of 2021 said that the average performance of the Kashmiri students has declined as compared to the one conducted in 2017. The SCERT said that in comparison to 2017 survey, average performance of Kashmiri students has declined among the students of third standard, fifth standard and eighth standard in IIOJK. In the assessment survey of 2021, SCERT said, "Primary class students have suffered more due to school closure." "Differences in the learning levels among the students of a same class have increased and 57 percent of the students have scored less than 50 percent," it added.

IIOJK residents fear false flag attack by Indian troops ahead of Amarnath Yatra

The additional deployment of 40,000 paramilitary forces in the Indian Occupied Jammu and Kashmir (IIOJK) ahead of Amarnath Yatra has raised serious concerns among the residents, who are fearing a false flag operation in the garb of security measures. Amarnath Yatra, one of the most famous annual pilgrimage destinations of India, is being organized by the government of Jammu and Kashmir from June 30 to August 11. This year's pilgrimage to the Himalayan shrine, located at a height of 3,880 metres in south Kashmir, will be held after a two-year hiatus due to the COVID-19 pandemic and expects to receive an influx of around 0.3 million.
